Claim No 107

Under Article 14. Treaty of 14th June 1866. with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Betsy Quabner⁽³²⁾, a freewoman of Color, of the Creek Nation, loyal refugee, of lawful age, and unmarried, being duly sworn, (she understanding and conversing in the English language,) deposes and says: Whilst she was living on her place, about ten miles from North Fork Town, in the Creek Nation and sometime in the month of August 1863, the rebel troops under command of General Cooper were raiding around the Country about her home, and she felt herself in constant danger of being captured and carried South into Slavery: That, about the time specified, General Blunt, Commanding U.S. troops, was passing near her home, and she sought and obtained their protection, and fled away hastily leaving all her property behind her, as it was impossible for her to take any of it with her. - That she owned and had on, or near, her place, at the time, and did so necessarily abandon and lose, all the following named property, which she never afterwards recovered either in whole or in part, to Say:

3.	Three fine Saddle Mares at $95. Each	$ 285.00
2	Two do Horses. " $60. "	120.00
2	Two Steers " $15. "	30.00
6	Six Yearlings " $5. "	30.00
	Carried forward	$ 465.00

Claimant, at the time of her flight from home, as aforesaid, did own and possess, and necessarily aban-doned and lost all the property enumerated in her deposition. Further these deponents do not say.
